

Only 256 Citizens Voted at Election

TWO-THIRDS OF NARBERTH'S REGISTERED VOTERS FAIL TO CAST BALLOTS ON TUESDAY. COMPLETE RETURNS ON THE BOROUGH VOTE.

Less than one-third of the registered voters in Narberth went to the polls at the Fire House Tuesday and voted at the general election. In the borough there are 778 registered voters, and the total number of ballots cast at the election was 256. There were 193 straight Republican tickets, 15 straight Democratic tickets, 2 straight Socialist tickets, 1 straight Prohibition ticket, and 46 split tickets.

The Republican candidates for Sheriff, County Controller, Register of Wills, Recorder of Deeds, County Treasurer, County Commissioners, District Attorney, Clerk of Courts, Coroner, Directors of the Poor and County Surveyor all carried Narberth by substantial majorities, the Republican candidates receiving an average vote of 214 against their Democratic rivals, who averaged about 29.

Dr. Romaine C. Hoffman, of Narberth, the Republican candidate for Coroner, received the largest vote of any of the candidates on the county ticket, polling 223 votes against his Democratic rival, William Schall, who received only 27 votes.

The Borough Contest.

In the election for the several borough offices William J. Henderson and A. P. Redifer, Republicans, were re-elected to Council, and Carl B. Metzgar, Republican, was elected as a new member of Council. C. Howard McCarter and Henry Rose, Republicans, were re-elected School Directors for full terms, and Walter Y. Shaw, Republican, was elected Director, to fill an unexpired term of two years.

Howard C. Fritsch, Republican, was elected Justice of the Peace; Carden Warner, Republican, was elected Assessor; Hervey C. Keim, Republican, was elected Auditor, and Fred Walzer, Republican, was elected Constable—all without opposition. In the contest for Judge of Elections, "Judge" Thomas

C. Trotter, Republican, defeated Wm. S. McClellan, Democrat, and William J. Kirkpatrick, Republican, defeated B. T. White, Democrat, for Inspector of Elections.

Through an error, the name of F. R. Gifford, Republican nominee for one of the two Borough Auditors to be elected, was omitted from the ballot. It will, therefore, be necessary for Council to apply to the Courts to secure Mr. Gifford's appointment to that office. The total vote for the borough officers follows:

Big Tennis Party Next Friday Night

HAVE YOU NOTIFIED MR. PATTISON THAT YOU WILL ATTEND? RESERVATIONS MUST BE IN HIS HANDS BY NEXT WEDNESDAY.

How about it, Mr. Member of the Narberth Tennis Association, are you going to the big tournament celebration next Friday evening, November 14, at Elm Hall?

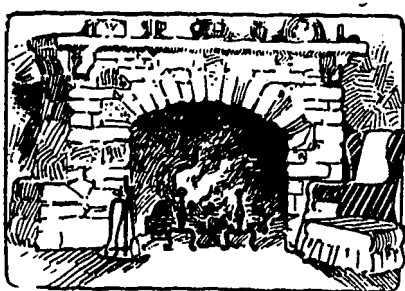

And if you are going, have you sent your acceptance to Robert E. Pattison, chairman of the Entertainment Committee? A good many of the members have notified Mr. Pattison that they will be on hand next Friday evening, but there are still quite a number who have said they are going, but haven't notified Mr. Pattison. This must be done before next Wednesday, November 12, otherwise it will be impossible for the Entertainment Committee to make provision for you.

The committee is hoping that every member of the Association will attend the celebration, for there will be dancing, the presentation of prizes won in the annual tournament, refreshments, a special entertainment feature and then more dancing.

Oh, it will be a good time, all right, all right, and any member of the Tennis Association who fails to attend will certainly miss an enjoyable evening.

Please remember that admission will be by ticket only, and that the dancing starts promptly at 8.30.

P. S.—If you haven't enough tickets, communicate with Mr. Pattison. Many of the members of the Association are bringing guests, and it may be that you will want one or two extra tickets. See, phone or write to Mr. Pattison for your reservations not later than next Wednesday, November 12.

Y. M. C. Campaign Making Progress

PROPOSED SWIMMING POOL PROVES TO BE BIG ATTRACTION.

WATCH THE THERMOMETER AND HELP IT UP.

By Y. M. C. A. Booster

At the time it is necessary to write this item in order to get it to press, it is too early to give any definite statement and forecast regarding the campaign now being undertaken by the local Y. M. C. A. to raise a fund of at least $40,000 to equip the present building with swimming pool, an auditorium addition, and more and better all-round supervision and equipment.

A large corps of workers has been working throughout the town the past two days, meeting in the Association rooms each evening for dinner, which is prepared by the Ladies' Auxiliary, and starting out from there on their work on the greatest civic undertaking ever attempted in Narberth.

The one outstanding result of the work thus far is the fact that the Association has found an innumerable number of friends in the town who are willing and ready to co-operate in our efforts.

Financially, a fair degree of success has been obtained, although it is too early to make a definite statement. Many pledges have been received, but in most cases the workers have been requested to call back, or that pledges would be sent in later. It is therefore expected that it will be several days before the result of the work already done will be known, and of course, the work has by far not been completed, and in fact will not be completed until the mercury in our thermometer bursts through the top.

We again earnestly seek the co-operation and assistance of the people of our town to put across a proposition that will single Narberth out as one of the real progressive towns of the Main Line.

Some of our young men are earnestly working to land that swimming pool, and we are quite confident they will see that it is done.

It is hoped that all homes will be reached during the course of the week; this may not be possible within the time, but will be done as speedily as possible. It is not the intention to purposely slight anyone, but if by chance any home is missed, will you not call at the Association Building, see the Secretary and turn in a pledge card to help push up the thermometer to the top?

We hope in the next issue of our paper to give details of the work accomplished. There is no reason to doubt but that the attempt of the Association will be successful. Narberth is a community abounding in young people; their welfare must be looked after, and the Association is the place and medium whereby that work can best be accomplished.

Let's all pull together for the up-building of a project so essential to Narberth. Boost!

William H. Thomas, head gardener for Mr. Percival Roberts, put one over on his friends and neighbors last Saturday by quietly slipping away and getting married. The bride was Miss Eva Grow, of Lower Merion. Somehow the secret got out, and on their return from town a large sign, "We Are Married," greeted the happy pair.

If you're a member of the Narberth Tennis Association, you'll be making a big mistake if you don't attend the big party next Friday evening, at Elm Hall. See Bob Pattison about your tickets.

"The Object of this Association shall be to improve and beautify the Borough and vicinity; to assist and co-operate with the authorities in enforcing laws and ordinances relating thereto; to promote any project having for its purpose the betterment of the community as a whole; to provide a means of acquiring and disseminating information on any subject of general interest; and to foster and maintain a fraternal spirit among the people of our community." Dues for Voting Membership for one year, $1.00. Every resident of Narberth and vicinity eligible.

Readers of Our Town, we believe, after digesting the object of the Narberth Civic Association as printed above, will want to be a member of the association. Sustaining membership, $5.00 yearly; voting membership, $1.00 yearly; payable to Miss M. J. Simpson, treasurer, P. O. Box 118, or to R. J. Edgar, secretary, P. O. Box 601. Membership cards will be mailed immediately on receipt of remittance. Subscriptions to Our Town at $1.50 yearly received by Miss M. J. Simpson, cashier, P. O. Box 118.

Civic Association Meeting

Civic Association Meeting—Display

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Civic Association was held in the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening, the 4th, and extensive plans were laid for the activities of the coming season.

Mr. E. A. Muschamp was appointed chairman of a permanent program committee to arrange a series of talks or lectures on subjects that will be interesting to residents of Narberth and to be delivered by prominent speakers from Philadelphia and surrounding district. These meetings to be held in Elm Hall, admission by card to residents of Narberth interested in the Civic Association.

The subject of road signs for marking the five entrances to the borough was given to a committee, and it is hoped that these can be erected within the next few months, co-operating with our Councils and several citizens who have promised their aid to this improvement.

A committee was appointed to correspond with the officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company regarding a theatre train stopping at Narberth at 7.48; for the convenience of Narberth residents, and also a train leaving Broad Street Station later than the 11.55 P. M. for the accommodation of all residents of the Main Line.

Next directors' meeting, December 4th.

The annual meeting of the Narberth Branch of the Needlework Guild will be held on Wednesday, November 12, in the Presbyterian Church. In the morning there will be the reception and counting of garments handed in by the Directors. Luncheon will be served, followed by an interesting program. Be sure to have your garments ready.

Any good cause deserves the support of the community, in spite of the fact that many do not find their personal feelings to coincide with that particular cause in every particular. The local Y. M. C. A. drive is for a worthy cause, and if the plans set forth by the committee work out, as no doubt they will, we shall all be amply repaid for our personal support.

It is to be regretted that so few of our citizens availed themselves of the privilege of voting on Tuesday. Elsewhere in this issue is given some facts concerning Narberth's part in the election, which report shows that only a small proportion of our voters responded. Although the election was but a minor one, yet there should be no lack of interest shown, as oftentimes a local or a county election has more direct bearing upon our daily life than an election of greater proportions.

To the Editor of Our Town:

It is to be regretted that Mr. Butler, in his letter last week to Our Town, was not more regardful of the wholesome spirit which prompted earnest and competent men of different faiths to advance suggestions which they confidently believed would prove of distinct service to the Association and to Nar-berth, and it is difficult to determine why he elected to outline his position in the perplexing manner he did rather than observe the more logical and convincing procedure which was available to him.

Mr. Butler must be considered unfortunate in his phrases, and it would have been better had he not made adverse comment on his statement unavoidable.

Yours truly,
J. J. CABREY.

To the Editor of Our Town:

It is remarkable that in the face of increased cost of labor and materials there is more building going on in Narberth—and elsewhere—than in any previous year. Wherever there is available ground are going up two-story houses, bungalows and even apartments. Think of apartments in the country! Why should people leave the city to live in them? Not on account of lower cost, for we hear of rentals at $60 to $90, besides the increased expense of railroad travel. Yet they come, and we are told are engaging them when half built. Bungalows, too, are said to be mapped up at $12,000, worth at pre-war price $3,000 to $4,000.

Then, too, individual houses are given such small plots of ground that all sense of privacy is lost. The doings of one family become known to the next neighbor, and gossips enjoy rare privileges. But as long as buyers are content to take them, I suppose builders will continue to crowd houses together, regardless of the ruin wrought in suburban comfort and beauty. Really one has more privacy and quiet in a West Philadelphia block, and at much less cost.

By the way, that notice in last week's Our Town of the days of ash collection naturally led many householders to put out their ashes last Monday. The notice should have stated that weekly collections would begin next week.

CAMOLEN.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Our Town boasts of a reporter of no little fame. The said Chauncey Depew-like reporter ever possesses the spirit of true sportsmanship, as is shown by his liberal views concerning the activities or non-activities of the various members of the famous firehouse forum, as well as of various well-respected citizens of Narberth.

This well-known reporter has a son attending college, and said son is, as the father-reporter recently said, "a big fellow at college." "Any boy is big who weighs a hundred and ninety pounds," remarked Bill Cummer.

No attention would have been given the incident had the reporter not told the boys at the forum how he had brought up this boy of his,—that the only way to bring up a son is to keep him buffaloe.

The day before the Penn-State football game (played last Saturday), the reporter received a telegram from son, stating that son was starting home to see the football game on Franklin Field. And how our worthy reporter raved! "That boy," said he, "is spending twelve dollars for a railroad ticket to see one football game, in spite of the fact that the H. C. L. and the Y. M. C. A. are staring me in the face, and the wire market going down!" The reporter would not be calmed, and with a baseball bat in hand rushed to meet the 5.40 train. Sure enough, son got off the train at Narberth, and for a moment the two gazed into each others' eyes. The father-reporter exclaimed: "You rascal, to spend twelve dollars of hard-earned money on one foolish game; I never raised my son to be a spendthrift!" "Father," the son replied, "let me explain. At college fifteen of us put up one dollar each, the winner to take the pot of fifteen dollars with which to attend the game at Penn. I gave my I. O. U. for my dollar, and as chance would have it, I won; so here I am, and after paying back the dollar I had fourteen bones left."

Slowly the reporter's countenance changed. "You are a wonderful son," said he. "Any boy who is not afraid to give his I. O. U. on a bet—and win—then he hasn't a cent, is a born financier."

THE BURNING OF THE CHURCH MORTGAGE.

Wednesday evening, October 29, was one long to be remembered in the history of the Narberth Presbyterian Church. In the presence of a large congregation, Mr. A. J. Loos, President of the Board of Trustees, gave a history of the efforts that have been made by the church since the erection of the building in 1896, in reducing the mortgage of $16,000 that was then contracted. At last the entire amount has been cancelled and at the close of Mr. Loos' remarks the various officers of the church came forward and each took a portion of the bond and burned it in the beautiful urn, while the joyful people sang the Doxology. Later, plans were presented by Mr. A. C. Shand for the enlargement of the Sunday School rooms, and this work will be begun in the near future. At this meeting the following were elected to the official boards of the church: Messrs. Roland G. Aungst and D. Warren Wright were elected Deacons and Mr. A. G. Compton, Ruling Elder. Following this was a pleasant social hour, with refreshments served by the Women's Auxiliary.

Mrs. H. I. McConnell is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Carl C. Gray, and Mr. Gray, who is the musical director for "Sometime." Mr. McConnell is spending the week in Chicago.

E. Lloyd Sheldon, who wrote "Wolves of the Night," the powerful screen production to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday, has turned out a vigorous melodrama that will be liked by everyone on account of its many thrilling situations. The acting of the star, William Farnum, and his support bring out all the good points of the story and the live action and sympathetic scenes help to make an unusually interesting entertainment.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY NARBERTH Y. M. C. A.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary will be held in the building on Monday evening, November 10th, at 8 o'clock promptly, and will be followed by a social hour with the Board of Directors. It is earnestly hoped that there will be a large attendance.

The rummage sale recently directed by Mrs. J. B. Darlington and Mrs. D. D. Stiekney has netted $248.13.

Mrs. Clarence L. Smith, who has had charge of the return of the mite boxes, reports that from forty-five boxes she has about $125.00. There are still fifty boxes to be returned, and we will be much gratified to hear from these before our meeting on Monday evening.

The purchase of the new roof at a cost of $662.00 is now a happy memory, the bill has been paid and the members of this organization are ever mindful of the fact that this could not have been accomplished if we had not enjoyed the most wonderful co-operation of the members and friends of the Y. M. C. A., and we wish to thank all who contributed in any manner to our success.

KING'S DAUGHTERS HOLD IMPORTANT MEETING.

The Evangel Circle King's Daughters held their meeting on Wednesday, November 5th, in the Y. M. C. A. building. The hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. Horton Williams and Mrs. Nelson Moore.

Miss Mary K. Gibson, of Wynnwood, will present the King's Daughters with the Holiday House, providing the members will raise an endowment fund of ten thousand dollars. It was agreed to raise the endowment fund to $25,000, using the interest to cover the good work carried on during the summer months.

At the recent convention held in Narberth, ten hundred and ninety-five dollars was pledged for one year for this fund, and the Evangel Circle pledged another one thousand dollars to be paid in five years.

The Rummage Committee reported clearing ninety dollars at the recent sale held in Ardmore.

In the future, meetings of this Circle will be held the first Wednesday of each month.

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

Ardent hunter and sportsman though he be, our fellow citizen Dave had never possessed a real up-to-date hunting outfit. With the call of the woods this year returned his annual yearnings for the leather jacket, breeches and other contraptions which denote the true woodsman. This time, however, fortune smiled and Dave, being flush, rigged himself out in full hunting paraphernalia. Dave's cup of happiness was complete, and he lost no time in arranging an expedition to near-by forests in search of the furry and feathery creatures which were to furnish his harder with game for weeks to come. But you never can tell! Somebody usually spills the beans. As Dave strutted down the street, proud as a peacock, he imagined that he could hear the envious sighs of his neighbors. He was quite sure he heard more than one whisper, "Look at the beautiful hunter." But Dave is slightly deaf, I am afraid. Either that or his hearing plays him tricks. As he emerged from a side street into our broad Boulevard de Haverford, he met a friend. Says the latter, "What's that, a Hallowe'en costume?" Dave deigned no reply to such an ignoramus and continuing his walk he ran into our Street Commissioner. "Hello, Dave!" says Charley; "that's the most clever and grotesque Hallowe'en suit I have seen to-day." That was tough luck, wasn't it? Thoroughly disgusted, Dave turned on his heel, went home and doffed the leather stuff and threw it into the rubbish barrel. He didn't give up his trip, however, and after donning his regular working clothes he shouldered his gun and went off to the woods and, would you believe it, he brought home two jack rabbits, a result which he feels he could not have bettered even though he were dressed up as a real hunter.

When a fellow unintentionally does the right thing, should he be commended or condemned? Ralpho Hall went to the polls for the purpose of voting the Democratic ticket, but didn't realize that he had done the opposite until it was too late to change. I wouldn't condemn him for that. He did what was perfectly proper, and hence I would rather encourage him to do it again.

Howard Davis, our local John Wana-maker, says: "All good dancers are light on their feet, and a good many of them are light at the other end as well."

THE LOTTERY

By a Rising Young
Narberth Authoress

"Mary Carter," she reproved herself sternly, "you are falling in love with that man. It's utterly simple. You don't even know him."

And her other self replied:

"He is at least a gentleman; if he hadn't been—oh, what's the use—"

And so things went on until at last came the first letter.

Mary sat for a long time with it in her hand, wondering what Arnold would have to say.

How many times had she imagined herself reading this, his first letter. And in how many different ways had it been begun.

She tore the seal and read the heading:

"My Wife!"

How different it was from any she had imagined, and yet, how much those words seemed to convey!

Then, hastily scanning the other pages of the letter, which told of his trip and his work, she came to the ending:

"And now, good night, little sweet-heart,

"Always your husband."

And this was the first letter, and she was to answer it in kind!

And so the months passed.

Arnold was now in France.

His letters had grown more and more ardent. Mary no longer tried to persuade herself that she was not in love with him.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community; the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and business or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
